

DAD at 73

by Hugh Fox

Chris outside, 12:30 AM as I write this, one of those upper middle class neighborhoods filled with retired professors, lawyers, doctors, everyone in bed at eleven, and there he is with Nate, Mike, Priscilla on the way to their cars, on the way home, yelling, talking about tonight's wrestling and Bush and is the draft gonna start, crickets like crazy, moon out, me sitting, waiting for a complaint/cop-car that never comes.
